

Eastern Styling Available in Country Club Section of Grandview Palos Verdes

PENINSULA SPLIT LEVELS: Spacious split level residences are now being offered for early occupancy in the new Country Club Unit of Grandview Palos Verdes adjoining the Country Club, and at West Palos Verdes Estates. Many other distinctive floor plans and exterior stylings are also available in the famed master-planned development, where over 1500 families have bought homes.

Admirers of the split-level home design will find an interesting Southland adaptation of this originally Eastern styling at the Country Club of Grandview Palos Verdes and at West Palos Verdes Estates, according to William C. Kulow, director of sales for the luxury peninsula committees.

Designed by architects Harris & Rice, AIA, to take the fullest advantage of ocean-view settings (unknown in the northwest where the coast is flat), the plan places a 14'-2" by 22'-6" room, and a spacious master bedroom, over the garage on the upper view level, with large picture windows. There is a full bath off the master bedroom.

The lower level, with a central entry, contains the fully automatic kitchen, a 22' by 12' family room with fireplace and log lighter, a 14'-2" by 10'-1" dining area, plus remaining bedrooms and another full bath. The plan is available with either three or four bedrooms, in a choice of traditional or contemporary stylings, with either cedar shake or large rock roof.

A sliding glass wall leads, in preferred Southern California style, from the family room to a concrete rear terrace. Bedrooms are separated from the family-dining-kitchen-terrace area.

At the coastal location, near the scenic intersection of Hawthorne Blvd. and Palos Verdes Drive West, the split level model runs to 2092 sq. ft. of interior living space. In Grandview, where the new unit adjoins and overlooks the 18-hole golf course of the Palos Verdes Country Club near Torrance, they range from 1,674 sq. ft. for three bedroom models to 1,831 sq. ft.

Grandview's nine furnished model homes may be reached via Crenshaw Blvd. to Silver Spur Rd. and right. The new unit is within walking distance of an elementary school, and two minutes from the peninsula shopping center. Prices start at $25,550 for smaller homes with two bedrooms and den.

Local Library Plans "Flying Carpet" Trip

The carpet, "flying carpet" that is, has been spread for the boys and girls of Torrance at the local County Library branch, 1345 Post Ave. and all is in readiness there for the young people to step onto it June 16, the day school ends, and take off on a trip "over the rainbow, into the magic land of books."

If that sounds rather far-fetched it's because Harold N. Umberger librarian at the Torrance branch, has just announced that the theme of the library's Summer Reading Club this year is an imaginative trip to any land, real or otherwise, that can be found within the covers of a book.

Each young reader who signs for membership in the club will be issued a map of the sky with a colorful rainbow spreading across it and a fanciful flying carpet down in one corner showing a boy and girl aboard all set to go. Each color of the rainbow points to a magic land, the land of science, or of fairy tales, or games, or nature, or foreign countries or history, or to any other place, time or fact that the child cares to read about.

The sky maps will remain in the library during the summer but whenever a club member reads a book and reports on it to some member of the library staff, a silver star will be placed on that member's sky map. Names of all who join will be posted on a bulletin board in the children's section. When summer and vacation ends all club members will meet at the library for a gala program and party and each will be given his own sky map with his reading record.

Mrs. Marjorie Humiston children's librarian for the Torrance-South Bay region, who will supervise the clubs at all branches in this area, said no set number of books is required to be read. "One book thoroughly read and enjoyed will count just as much as several, but because many children are avid readers many will read a goodly number of books and that is important, too," she said.

Mrs. Mary Rogers Smith, coordinator of children's services for the County Library, said the Reading Clubs are set up every summer in order to provide one more worthwhile and pleasurable activity for children during the vacation period.

LIBERTY

This nation is passionately fond of liberty, because this liberty is real. And it is possible for it, in its defense, to sacrifice its wealth, its ease, its interest, and to support the burden of the heaviest taxes — even such as a despot's prince dare not lay upon his subjects.

—Charles de Montesquieu (1689-1755)
